A Dreamy Dental Experience

Dr. John R. Pelton D.D.S.

Peace begins with a smile.

— MOTHER TERESA

Just how important is your smile? Imagine that all-important blind date – with your soulmate. Your first meeting with a potential client. The bright camera flashes on your wedding day. The many eyes watching as you're announced partner of the firm. Whether personally or professionally, nothing communicates confidence, well-being and satisfaction better than a vibrant, healthy smile.

The dental practice of Dr. John Pelton recognizes the significant value of your smile. From routine cleanings to whitening procedures, our patients receive only the best and most professional dental treatment to help you achieve and maintain that beautiful smile.

But your comfort is also paramount. No longer just a patient, we invite you - a pampered guest – to experience a more relaxed dental visit than you've ever imagined. The sights, sounds and smells of typical dental offices melt away in our tranquil spa-like ambiance. And the soothing option of sedation dentistry alleviates any fears or anxieties you may have.

Welcome to a dreamy dental experience.

Plenty to Smile About

From the moment you enter Dr. John Pelton's sophisticated, serene dental office-as-spa, the environment has been especially designed to maximize your comfort. Soft hues of blue, taupe and gray set a tone of quiet refinement. Lemon-infused water is available to quench your thirst. Calming aromatherapy eclipses any smells of a traditional medical office.

The rest of the office is just as attuned to your comfort. Tranquil New Age music plays throughout. Warm, scented hand towels are available to wash your stresses away. Ergonomically correct procedure chairs ensure your comfort both during and after your visit. For your viewing pleasure, our five pristine procedure suites offer impressive third-floor vistas and DVD movies on Samsung flat screen TVs and stereo earphones. And a dark, cozy recovery room provides a private oasis worthy of a luxury spa.

A Dreamy Smile

Your eyes grow heavy as your urgent breathing subsides and tense muscles surrender. Next thing you know, you're awake, refreshed and ready to go on with your day. This is no ordinary nap – it's sedation dentistry.

Dr. Pelton has advanced training in dental anesthesia, which not only helps to reduce a common anxiety for many people, but also offers time saving and convenience benefits for those who are not particularly fearful. With its commendable record of safety, sedation dentistry allows you to relax right through your next dental procedure.
